For three quarters Canning had all chances of defeating the top side Gosnells, but allowed them to run away to an easy victory in the last quarter.

The Reserves also put up a good show all throughout the game and also allowed the stronger Gosnells side to take out the victory.

The League game was a hard-fought one with neither side giving the other much room for error. In many instances Canning held the upper hand and did not trail Gosnells by the expected margin throughout the game.

But after the break, Gosnells proved their strength and ran away with the game. The score board at the end did not indicate the standard of the game.

Many of Canning's players played well, but John Vlahov playing a good sound attacking game was voted Canning's best. He would be one of Canning's most consistent players. Geoff Mangini returned to form and played his best game of the season.

Backmen Peter Alwers and Peter Kimberley also played reliable games.

Other good players were Billy Archibald, Paul Polsen and newcomer Peter Vulich.

The Reserves redeemed themselves from their last game and proved a menace to Grand Final prospects, Gosnells.

The three new young players must be commended for their sound efforts.

Greg Dickenson returned to form and gave a real courageous effort on the wing. Don Jupp seems certain to have played his way back into the League side with a real strong game at centre-half-back. John McGurk and Ross Gowin also played well all day.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING

Remember — Friday, 1st August night, in fact a Buck's Night, for players, supporters and friends. See Notice Board for further details.

BINGO — Tuesday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock at the Queens Park Hall — make up a party and support your Club. Everyone welcome.

Congratulations Grant Symonds for your marriage yesterday from all at the Canning Football Club.

We travelled a long way today and it will be worth it if we record a much-needed double. Remember Mandurah are stronger now than when they visited us at Wyong.

BULLDOGS BULLETIN

The Bulldogs notched up another double last Sunday. Both League and Reserves won by big margins and proved too strong for Kalamunda.

The League game, although fairly one-sided, was very good from our point of view with the return to form of some of the players.

The Final Four is well within our sights now, keep it up fellas!

BEST PLAYERS:

PETER DELLA — Dynamic on his wing.

RAY WITT — Great display in the ruck.

CHRIS PARSONS — Brilliant at C.H.F.

DAVID LIGHTFOOT — Great goal kicking.

The Reserves side are going from strength to strength and each week they seem to put it all together. A Grand Final appearance seems certain this year, so keep up the good work.

BEST PLAYERS:

BRIAN ANDRIJICH — Dominated in the ruck.

RAY LAWRENCE — His experience and ability was too much for his opponents.

WALLY BICKERTON — Another great goal-kicking spree.

LINTON HAMILTON — Strong game at C.H.F.

SOCIAL NEWS

The Cabaret held last Saturday night for the Hockey and Football Clubs was a great success. To those of you who didn't come, you missed a most joyable time.

Special thanks go to all who helped on the night. This is great for Club spirit. Also thanks to the barman, great job Robert.

Today, we play Gosnells at home. This is a very important match for us — so how about it fellas, another double.

We invite Gosnells members and supporters to stay after the game for drinks and eats.

THE HAWKS WILL STRIVE IN '75

The games played last weekend in real wet weather conditions resulted in another double to the Gosnells Football Club. Although the conditions did not suit our style of play, the League game saw the "Hawks" record an impressive 54 point victory and move to the top of the Premiership Ladder.

There was little between the two teams for the first three quarters and it was only in the final term that Gosnells played team football and finally ran out easy winners.

BEST PLAYERS:

BARRY MARSH — Revelled in the conditions and set a good example to his teammates.

BRIAN ANTONOVICH — Great game on the ball from "Tuna."

IAN GIMLETT — Returned to form with a good display of roving and was prepared to go into the packs for the ball.

Others to play well were Nick, Gerry and Lumpy.

"Lumpy" Kennington capped off a solid game in the back pocket by showing his versatility with a dashing display of tree climbing.

The Seconds were able to defeat a determined Canning by 41 points. Although it was not one of our best performance, Norm was happy to get the four points.

This week we meet Kelmscott and second place is at stake. This game is important and a big effort is required from all players.

BEST PLAYERS FOR THE SECONDS WERE:

KEN REYNOLDS — Returned to his best form after a long period on the sidelines.

BOB DORSA — Strong game on the ball — kicked a goal.

MIKE SHIPLEY — Dominated C.H.F. Others to go well — "Nello, "Baby" and "Big Pete."

SOCIAL SCENE

C.R. made a big impression recently with his rendition of the Hawks song, while P.R. EXPERT Chas. "the Mo" Pollick continues to make friends with opposition supporters.

Norm, Barrett should have received a special award at the golf day. He was the only player to get a clubhouse in one. "Sticks" Latham tried hard but could only manage it in two.

DONALD DUCK

"IN THE LIONS LAIR"

9 IN A ROW — ONLY 4 TO GO

Last week saw the Lions finest hour so far this season when they blurbled the fragile Bulls Bubble and knocked them off their perch. It was pure guts and determination, team-work, and will to win attitude that made it easy for the Lions and this vital win has given us breathing space for a place in the Final Four.

The game itself was a toughy, especially the ground conditions, but that's what footy is all about — being able to adapt to different conditions.

Both teams found the going early, rather hard, but it was Thornlie at half time who had the big lead. From then on the game was on with Thornlie playing good team footy and finally coming up winners by a good margin.

Congrats to Fred and the boys for a job well done.

BEST PLAYERS:

CHRIS DUNCAN

The Reserves were beaten on the day by Maddington, but it was due mainly to a big hole that our players fell into in the last quarter. Until that disastrous last quarter, Thornlie were well in it.

The Reserves will now have to win their remaining 4 games to have a chance of making the finals so come on Reserves lets see if we can make it two teams to play in the Finals.

THE KNIGHTS' NOTES

Our win over Kenwick last week has taken us that little bit closer to a place in the Finals.

However, this is by no means certain and the games we are to play will be vital ones. We have to meet form sides Thornlie, Maddington and Kelm-scott after today's game against Armadale.

Wins in these games could see us sneak into second spot, losses could knock us right out of the Final Four.

Now that we have reached the business end of the season, it is imperative that maximum effort come from everyone. Let's start off today with a good win over the Demons, a side which always gives us a hard game.

Last week's game was played in poor conditions and quite a few of our players experienced something of a lapse in form.

BEST PLAYERS:

MURRAY LLOYD — Good roving display.

BILL DUNNE — Brilliant return after injury.

JOHN LANGE — Typically reliable game.

ALAN DRAGGETT — Solid display.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

John Legena's performance in the back pocket last week was a brilliant one. There were many times when it seemed Kenwick must score, but John was always on hand to clear the ball with great determination and coolness.

John had to battle hard at the start of the season, firstly to overcome a leg injury, and then win a place in the League. Since then he has played his position to perfection and proved to be one of the teams most reliable defenders.

A dedicated player, John never misses a training run and he was most set when he had to stand down week with a fractured cheek bone.

It is most gratifying the way in which John has entered into the social and playing side of our Club.

The Reserves side was again very disappointing and it is becoming increasingly difficult to comment on their performances.

BEST PLAYERS — (Reserves):

DREW PROCTOR
GRAHAM BUTLER
PAUL FROST

SOCIAL NOTES

Many Reserves players have complained that they aren't receiving trophies or due recognition for their efforts.

Trophies have been presented in the past but invariably the players weren't there to receive them.

The attendance at last Sunday's after-game function was extremely poor and even many of the League players were conspicuously absent.

At least one sponsor refuses to present Reserves trophies until he thinks there is at least some chance of the winning player being there to receive it.

Even half an hours attendance after the game would be sufficient as trophies are always presented early in the evening.

Wednesday night is Ladies' Night. Contact Angela if you wish to go.

There are still tickets left for the colour television set Raffle, so how about jumping in and buying a few.

DEMONS DIGEST 'COME ALIVE - IN 75!'

At Gwynne Park today, we play our return match with Kwinana F.C., the "Knights." The lessons from our previous encounter should be remembered, and acted upon accordingly.

Last week Mandurah recorded a well-earned double at our expense. Their support socially was good also.

The Reserves played well in patches and players of merit were, Alby Gray, Colin Towers (again), Frank Gajda (again) and "Robo" Robinson.

The League always looked as if they could take this match, till mid-way through the final quarter, when Mandurah put the result beyond doubt.

BEST FOR THE DEMONS:

ALLAN "Flyer" NARKLE

(Man-of-the-Match)

ROBERT "Fish" HERON

JOHN ERCEG

JOHNNY "Mac" McHENRY

CHARLIE TENARDI

The Under-18's won handsomely two weeks ago, but fell to Thornlie last week at Gwynne Park, by a few points.

Though still favourites for the Final, this side must knuckle down in their last few games to make it an odds-on bet for the flag.

All three teams owe it to their tireless band of workers, and supporters, to really give their all and show them that the ability is there to win their last remaining games, or at least put up a Bloody good fight.

My old school motto was: "Nought Without Labour." If one wants to achieve any goal in life, and that includes winning in football, one has got to work for it. If anyone has a more permanent alternative for achievement, then I'd love to hear it!

NOTICES

BINGO: Monday, 8 p.m., Gwynne Park. Support is improving, but could be a lot better.

BLAZERS: See Joe Bavich for details.

T-SHIRTS: See Mal Pratt for yours.

WIND-UP: On 26/9/75, watch out for full details soon. Only 200 can attend.

WICK'S WEEKLY

Last Sundays loss against Kwinana has meant mothballs for the League side — however, all players are asked to continue to put in 100 per cent effort right through until the end of the season and support the Reserves side up until Grand Final Day.

The League side attacked the goals right from the first bounce, but there were numerous opportunities not capitalised on and this let Kwinana back into the game and take control.

To the Royals credit, they fought the game right out to the end with only three goals being the difference at the final siren.

BEST PLAYERS (League):

JIM GILBERT — Who tried hard day on a half back flank.

PAT DALTON — Battled gallantly in the centre for the entire game.

BARRY NICHOLAS — Turned in yet another strong performance.

The Reserves side completely out-classed the opposition and had a very comfortable victory.

Our side was depleted by injuries and it was a credit to the new players who came into the side and acquitted themselves very well.

Dusty Dillon is determined to regain his fitness as was shown by his two games last week. After sitting on the bench for the Reserves and kicking a spectacular goal in that game he fronted up in the League game (again on the bench) and held down the half back flank for the last quarter.

BEST PLAYERS (Reserves):

DARRYL OGG — On the ball along with GEORGE POMESBACK. Others to play well were JOHN OLIVER and MAL EMERY.

Dennis Wheat is also to be congratulated for his fine effort.

This weeks games against Thornlie — Wins are again essential, especially by the Seconds and a victory by the League is a must to regain prestige.

— Lets go to it fellas.
